NFD – No For Drugs Privacy Policy

At NFD – No For Drugs, we value your trust and are committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and safeguard personal information shared with us through our website, social media, fundraising platforms, and other communication channels.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following information when you interact with us:

- Full name, email address, phone number, and location.
- Information you provide when donating, volunteering, or contacting us.
- Information shared by individuals seeking rehabilitation support (such as type of addiction, medical needs, and personal details).

How We Use Your Information

We use your information only for:

- Contacting you regarding donations, fundraising, or volunteering opportunities.
- Providing rehabilitation appointments and support services.
- Sharing updates about our programs, projects, and impact.
- Meeting legal, regulatory, and reporting requirements.

Data Protection & Confidentiality

- All personal information is coded, stored securely, and accessed only by authorized staff to assure confidentiality.
- We do not sell, rent, or share your information with third parties.
- Sensitive information (such as addiction history) is treated with the highest level of confidentiality and protection.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Request a copy of the information we hold about you.
- Request a copy of your legal documents.
- Ask us to correct or update inaccurate information.
- Withdraw your consent and request deletion of your data, subject to legal obligations.
